

Announcements for 9/17/2017

On Saturday, September 23, there will be a long kirtan meditation from 3 to 9 pm to commemorate Lahiri Mahasaya.

On Tuesday, September 26, we will commemorate the Mahasamadhi of Lahiri Mahasaya. There will be a silent meditation from 7 - 7:40pm, during which you may enter silently at anytime, followed by the Commemorative Service from 8 - 9:30pm.

On Saturday, September 30, we will celebrate the birthday of Lahiri Mahasaya. There will be a kirtan meditation starting at 6pm per our usual Saturday schedule. Around 6:55 pm there will be a chant, during which, and after, you may enter the chapel and join the meditation at any time. The Commemorative Service will be held 8 - 9:30 pm.

Please bring a flower and donation to offer during the Commemorative Services.

We will have our next Day of Service on Saturday, September 30. The day will begin at 9:30 am with a meditation. We will have another meditation at 12:30 pm followed by a delicious vegetarian lunch at 1 pm that will be provided. Then we will finish up projects until 4 pm.

We are reviewing the timing of our weekly Saturday 3-hour meditations and seek your feedback. We are considering a 6-month trial starting in 2018 of changing from evenings 6 – 9 p.m to mornings 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. The primary reasons for considering the change are that people often feel more fresh for meditation in the morning, and some of our members prefer not to drive at night. Please indicate your preference and provide comments using the printed feedback forms in the social room. We will collect feedback through Sunday October 8th.

The subject for today's service is: "A Yogi Christ and His Way to Salvation."
