

Announcements for 9/25/2016

This coming week we will have two Commemorative Services. On Monday, September 26, we will commemorate the Mahasamadhi of Lahiri Mahasaya, and on Friday, September 30, we will celebrate his birthday. On each date, there will be a silent meditation from 7 - 7:40 pm. The usher will allow people to enter quietly. The meditation will be followed by the Commemorative Service from 8 - 9:30 pm. Please bring a flower and donation to offer during the Commemorative Service.

Please join us for an inspiring day of spiritual fellowship and an opportunity to perform maintenance, gardening, and cleaning tasks at the Seattle Center of SRF. The Day of Service is a wonderful opportunity to serve at the Center and one of the best ways to get to know other members. Paramahansa Yogananda initiated the tradition of holding a Day of Service not only to perform needed tasks, but also to cultivate the spiritual community through meditation and serving together.

Our next Day of Service is on Saturday, October 8. Group meditations will be held at 9:30 am and 12:30 pm. A vegetarian lunch will be provided at 1 pm. We will work on cleaning and other projects till 4 pm. All are welcome, including children, for any length of time.

We have reached an important milestone in our ADA Bathroom construction project. The City of Shoreline has signed off the foundation preparation and plumbing rough-ins. In the coming weeks, the foundation will be poured and the exterior walls will be framed.

Today we have our monthly DVD service: Today we will be showing:

“The Wisdom of the Bhagavad Gita, Brother Anandamoy, Part I”
